About the Competition...

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) recognized 32 seniors from Jesuit High School's Class of 2012 as semifinalists in the annual Merit Scholarship Competition. Additionally, 14 senior Blue Jays received recognition as Commended scholars.

No other high school in Louisiana has as many National Merit Semifinalists as Jesuit, which also ranks in the top tier of Catholic secondary schools in the United States, according to data provided by the NMSC.

The faculty and administration of Jesuit High School extend their congratulations to each student on his significant achievement.
