The National Merit Scholarship Corporation

(NMSC) recognized 36 seniors from Jesuit High School as semifinalists in the annual Merit Scholarship Competition, representing the largest number of honorees at a Louisiana school and the largest number of semifinalists among Catholic schools in the United States, according to data provided by the NMSC.

With 36 National Merit Semifinalists, Jesuit ranks among the top 25 public and private high schools in the country. Jesuit's honorees make up 16% of Louisiana's 229 National Merit Semifinalists who come from 57 schools. Jesuit also had 14 Blue Jays who were Commended Students in the 2010 National Merit Program. The outstanding performances by these Blue Jays are a reflection of the excellent academic traditions that make Jesuit High School one of the top college prep high school in the United States.

The faculty and administration of Jesuit High School extend their congratulations to each student on his significant achievement.
